

ATM Technical Sessions on April 20th Friday

To be held at the Department for International Development, 1 Palace Street, London SW1E 5HE

Each participant is requested to choose one seminar only. A working lunch will be included in the programme. Rooms will be confirmed on the 19th April

TIME	SESSION	ROOM
10am – 2pm	Session 1: Innovations and intellectual property and public health Session organisers: Andrew Jenner (Patent Office); Lynne Charles (DFID/International Trade); Michael Borowitz (DFID/ATM).  Note taker: Elizabeth Gardiner The purpose of this session is to inform DFID of innovations in intellectual property such as patent pooling. Also, to put the IP discussions into a broader public health agenda including global pooled procurement and other ways of addressing the price and availability of medicines. Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To inform DFID/U.K. govt’s view on intellectual property including innovative mechanisms such as patent pooling;</li> <li>• To explore how other mechanisms beyond IP can be used to achieve similar objectives to lower prices such as global pooled procurement (e.g. Global Drug Facility for TB, GAVI, etc.)</li> <li>• To discuss IP arrangements under new hybrid models of innovation.</li> </ul> Pre-lunch speakers:            Patent pooling/UNITAD: Jamie Love CPTECH            Other IP innovations: Anthony So Duke University            IP under new global partnerships: Dr. Venugopal Post-lunch speakers:            IP from a public health perspective: Richard Laing            Global procurement/GAVI: Peter Evans/ Henk de Besten            Active mechanisms for decreasing price: Brenda Waning	3W11

10am – 2pm	Session 2: Push and Pull mechanisms Session organisers: Chris Collinson (DFID/ATM); Owen Barder (DFID/Development effectiveness)  Note taker: Paul Spivey Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To inform DFID/UK government’s approach to innovation;</li> <li>• DFID believes that pull mechanisms are relatively neglected and should be prioritised. To consult on this in the broader ATM community.</li> <li>• To understand mechanisms for prioritising funding for new product development.</li> </ul> Speakers:  Owen Barder “Push me pull you” DNDi/MMV	3W12
10am – 2pm	Session 3: Health Systems and Access to Medicines Session organisers: Danny Graymore (DFID); Matt Gordon (DFID)  Note taker: Bruce Mackay Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To inform participants of DFID’s broader approach to health systems including health financing and human resources;</li> <li>• To update participants on the Medicines Transparency Alliance;</li> <li>• To explore issues on the intersection between health systems and access to medicines</li> </ul> Speakers  DFIDs approach to health systems: Matt Gordon/Julia Watson  MeTA: Loraine Hawkins	3W14